

Executive Department
State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, Idaho's school bus drivers are a vital part of Idaho's public school system, traveling over 28.6 million miles each year as they transport more than 111,000 students each day to and from school and school-sanctioned activities; and

WHEREAS, Idaho school bus drivers have been committed to professional development and training to improve their knowledge and skills and to a comprehensive program of public awareness, continuing education, and advocacy for better traffic and road conditions as a way to ensure the safety and well-being of students and of other drivers who share the state's roadways with school buses; and

WHEREAS, the more than 2,800 drivers, dispatchers, trainers, technicians, and support staff involved in the transportation program, some as school district employees and some as private employees working under contract to provide services, have compiled a outstanding safety record in Idaho; and

WHEREAS, the week of October 17 through 23, 2004, is National School Bus Safety Week throughout the nation in recognition of the contribution drivers and other school transportation staff make to the nation's public education system, and it is fitting that we set aside a special time to commend these dedicated citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DIRK KEMPTHORNE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim October 20, 2004, to be in Idaho, and encourage all citizens to recognize school bus drivers and support program staff for the services they provide.

SCHOOL TRANSPORTATION PERSONNEL APPRECIATION DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this twenty-third day of September in the year of our Lord two-thousand and four and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred twenty-ninth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred fifteenth.
